Obituary

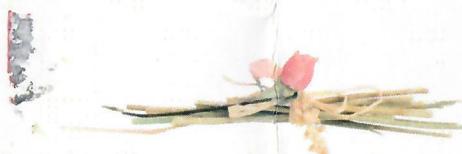

Cathy Arlene Jordan was born on October 12, 1950 in Detroit, MI to the union of Walter and Allene Jordan who preceded her in death. She was the 1st of two children born to this union. She confessed Christ at a early age by being baptized at St. Cyprian's Episcopal Church in Detroit.

Cathy graduated from Mumford High School and furthered her education at University of Detroit Mercy obtaining a Bachelors in Education with a concentration in science. She was always in pursuit of more degrees. She was a jack of all trades; her last trade was working for the Board of Education for over 10 years.

She was a devoted woman who provided for and deeply loved her family. She befriended many people she came in contact with, Cathy never met a stranger; many times opening her home as refuge or shelter to friends or family members in need. Her favorite hobbies were horseback riding, roller skating (back in the day) and dancing. Cathy was always the life of the party. She loved to seek out new adventures and had a great appreciation for life and all it had to offer. She touched and saved so many lives, she will definitely be missed.

Cathy made her transition on Saturday January 30, 2010 at 12:53 pm, while at Henry Ford Hospital.

Cathy leaves to cherish her memory: two daughters; Dominique, TyShawn and honorary daughter Joye. Three brothers; Tyrone, Christopher and Kenny. Two sister-in-laws; Stacy and Pam. Four bestfriends; Gwendolyn McCain, Deborah Walker, (Big Deb), Della Robinson and Jackie Sims. And a host of relatives and friends.

"She openeth her mouth with wisdom and on her tongue is the law of kindness"- Proverbs 31: 26
